

Towards the Royal College of Pharmacy

A mandate for change

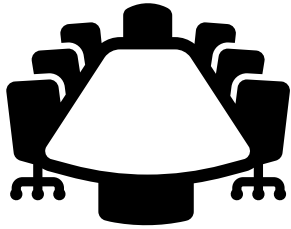

71.1 % in favour of the changes

The proposal agreed by RPS members

RPS will seek to become a charity called the Royal College of Pharmacy

RPS will need to create a Trustee Board to ensure the charity operates legally, ethically, and effectively.

In addition, RPS will create a wholly owned subsidiary for its publishing activities.

The journey to change:

Our commitments as the Royal College of Pharmacy

Create greater recognition for pharmacy

Collaboratively shape the future of pharmacy

Put patients at the forefront of our work

Support
workforce
transformation

Advance pharmacists to provide excellence in patient care

Ensure member value at every career stage
